

The Disability Rights Bar Association is excited to announce its
First Annual West Coast Conference

Intersectionality and Oppression:
A Day of Cross-Movement Coalition Building and Skill Sharing

Learn and share ideas about:

- ⇒ Social media and civil rights.
- ⇒ Access and inclusion in technological innovation.
- ⇒ Impact of the shared economy model on transportation and housing.
- ⇒ Intersection of disability rights and rights of Trans/GNC persons.
- ⇒ Gun violence as a civil rights issue.

Image: icons for blind person; transgender; bus; house; smartphone; and gun

Brainstorm with an all-star roster of speakers (in no particular order):

- * Brian Wenke, It Gets Better Project
- * Alice Wong, Disability Visibility Project
- * Michael Bien, Rosen Bien Galvan & Grunfeld, LLP
- * Dessi Mia Carbajal, East Bay Housing Organization
- * Xian Horn, AT&T NYU Connect Ability Challenge toward Assistive Technology
- * Jasmine Abdullah, BlackLivesMatter Pasadena
- * Victoria Rodriguez-Roldan, National LGBT Task Force
- * Keith Hiatt, Human Rights and Technology Program, Berkeley Law
- * Lydia X. Z. Brown, Holley Law Fellow at the National LGBTQ Task Force
- * Samantha Crane and Finn Gardiner of the Autistic-Self-Advocacy Network.
- * Nancy Leong, University of Denver
- * Nancy Hanna, Hadsell, Stormer & Renick
- * Will Harris, Schonbrun Seplow Harris & Hoffman
- * Tim Elder, TRE Legal Practice, LLC
- * Jim DeSimone, V. James DeSimone Law

October 20, 2016 from 8:30 to 4:30 (plus happy hour!)

California Endowment
1000 N Alameda St,
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Info and registration: <http://disabilityrights-law.org/2016-west-coast-meeting>